WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues,

I hope you are enjoying the summer season. In this issue, I would like to bring your attention to several funding opportunities with fast-approaching deadlines in August and September. Please review the current funding opportunities section of the newsletter for more information and links to the funding announcements.

To support the submission of successful grant proposals, my office offers three types of support to faculty: $750 for a grant reviewer, $1500 for a grant writing coach, or fees to attend a grant writing workshop. I encourage you to consider applying for support for a grant reviewer or grant writing coach if you are preparing a grant submission for an upcoming deadline. Please see the application information below this letter.

The Ball-Stick-Bird Award is funded annually by the Estate of Dr. Renee Fuller, the creator of the Ball Stick Bird learning method. Four TC faculty members, named below, and their collaborators have received the award for their research projects that seek to advance the field of child development and individual learning. I would like to thank Associate Provost Jason Barr and Vice Dean for Faculty Affairs Marie Miville for serving on the review committee.

We will announce the student recipients of the AY25 Dissertation Research Award in the September newsletter.

In the sections below, please read time-sensitive information about external funding opportunities.

Please feel free to contact me with your questions, ideas, or suggestions. I look forward to hearing from you at vdr@tc.columbia.edu.

Warm regards,
Caroline

Caroline Ebanks, Ph.D.
